One of our most popular classes brings families together in an atmosphere of creativity and fun. Adults and children learn about pinch pots, coil pots, and using slips and glazes for color - while making wild and wonderful things together! Come join the fun! All you need is your imagination - and each other! This class is limited to three members per family so that more families can participate. The same family members are requested to attend each class. Limited to 12 students.

October

Parent-Teen Glassblowing: Glass Pumpkins

091GF003A

Instructor: Jake Vincent
Monday, October 13, 12:00 PM - 3:00 PM
1 Class / All Levels / Hot Shop

Tuition and Fees: Non-Member Fee $80.00/ Member Fee $72.00

Spend a fun, creative afternoon during this school vacation learning about glassblowing with your teen! Explore some of the basic techniques behind this fascinating and ancient art. Learn how to gather, shape, and blow molten glass and create your own glass pumpkins to decorate your home or give as a gift. Shop safety will be addressed. This class is limited to teens ages 13 and over and their adult guardians. Materials are included in tuition.

Barking Clay: Animal Sculpture Workshop

091CF017A

Instructor: Rosalie Olds
Monday, 10/13/2008, 9:00 AM - 4:00 PM
1 Class / All Levels / Handbuilding Studio

Tuition and Fees: Non-Member Fee $89.00 / Member Fee $79.00 / Materials Fee $10.00

Are you an animal fan? This exciting, fun class offers a great way to begin sculpting with clay - and finish with a piece you'll love. Working with stoneware clay, and with support and guidance from the instructor, you'll learn the basics of hollow form sculpting while making the animal of your choice - birds, cats, dogs, and fish, or something from your own imagination. Everything is possible, from the fantastic to the realistic! Your clay animal will be fired in the WCC kilns and available for pick-up two weeks after completion of the workshop. A great course for both teens and adults. Open to all skill levels.

November

Bones of Clay: Ancient Traditions in Cultural Context

091CF433A

Instructor: Ginny Gillen

Saturday, 11/1/2008, 12:00PM - 3:00 PM

1 Class / All Levels / Handbuilding Studio

Tuition and Fees: Non-Member Fee $40.00 / Member Fee $35.00 / Materials Fee $8.00

In the spirit of the ancient feast of Samhain (or Halloween, as it's more commonly manifested) and the Day of the Dead, the class will make hand-formed, 18-inch skeletons that will be "smoke"-fired to create the appearance of aged bone. The instructor will lead conversations on the cultural and artistic significance of these two culturally important holidays and the visual arts they inspire. The class will also view a short film on pottery-making in Oaxaca, Mexico. Open to adults and children (8+.)

A Joyful Noise: Crafting Musical Instruments from Clay

091CF018A

Instructor: Ginny Gillen

Tuesday, November 11, 9:00 AM - 4:00 PM

1 Class / All Levels / Handbuilding Studio

Tuition and Fees: Non-Member Fee $89.00 / Member Fee $79.00 / Materials Fee $10.00

This special Day-Off Series class brings youth (8+) and adults together to make sculpted whistles and rattles (ocarinas) from stoneware clay. Tap into your imagination and continue ancient traditions as you work with your instructor to make instruments that range from the ceremonial to the whimsical. Let your imagination run wild while your hands learn basic clay-forming skills! Your clay whistles and rattles will be fired in the WCC kilns and available for pick-up two weeks after completion of the workshop. Open to all skill levels and ages from 8 years and up.
