Learn how to use the potter's wheel to throw pots, bowls, and pitchers. You'll practice on the wheel, under the instructor's guidance, and we'll decorate and fire your successful "first works" so that you can take them home two weeks after the workshop! Limited to 8 students.

Teen Glassblowing

091GT001A

Instructor: Kate Testa
Saturdays from 10:00 AM - 1:00 PM
9/20/2008 - 11/22/2008, 10 Classes
All Levels / Hot Shop

Tuition and Fees: Non-Member Fee $575.00 / Member Fee $515.00

Teens learn the fundamentals of working with glass in this fun and challenging class. Through demonstrations and individual instruction, the teacher and teaching assistant will walk teens through the process of creating anything from glass paperweights and flowers to drinking glasses and vessels. Teens are asked to come to class with creative ideas and in turn can expect to have a great time working with glass and learning about their own abilities. Materials are included in the cost of tuition.

October

Tween Projects in Polymer Clay

091MT004A

Instructor: Lauren Beaudoin
Monday, 10/13/2008, 9:00 AM - 4:00 PM
1 Class / All Levels / Enamels Studio

Tuition and Fees: Non-Member Fee $79.00 / Member Fee $69.00 / Materials Fee $40.00

Polymer clay is a sculptable material that can be worked into various shapes and forms that are then cured or hardened through a heating source like an oven. In this 1 day class students will be able to work with the material to create projects such as pen covers, beads, a pair of earrings or animal sculptures. Students will go home with small kits that will allow them to continue creating with polymer clay. Class limited to 8 students.

Bring your imagination! We'll teach you how to turn your creative ideas into amazing pottery. Through demonstrations and one-on-one guidance from the instructor, you'll learn a range of clay-forming skills - from handbuilding to throwing on the potter's wheel. And you'll make cups and bowls that can be transformed into fun and fantastic creatures, animals, and other forms. Limited to 10 students.

TEEN & TWEEN FASHION SERIES

Fiber to Fashion: My Colors, My Designs!

091FT101

Instructor: Patricia Sims
Friday, 9/12/2008 and 9/19/2008, 6:00 PM - 9:00 PM
2 Classes / Beginner / Multi-Media Studio

Tuition and Fees: Non-Member Fee $85.00 / Member Fee $75.00 / Materials Fee $10.00

Create off-the-charts colors with fabric dyes! Invent beautiful designs with multiple layers of color using non-toxic soy wax and other resists. We'll experiment with brushes, stencils, tjanting tools and printing blocks from the recycled world. Participants will begin their own designer sample book and then use their new color skills to give plain cotton clothes a new look!

Fiber to Fashion: Sheep to Chic Felting!
